THE BOX ABOUT ME

One day, a girl named Mila finds a small box in her room. The box is brown and old. It is under her bed. Mila looks at the box and says: "Hmm... What is this?". She opens it slowly. Inside the box there are many small things. Mila takes the first thing from the box. "This is a photo," she says. In the photo there is a girl and a dog. "The girl is me! And this dog is my dog, Leo!" Leo is very funny. He is small and brown. Mila is very happy in the photo. Mila smiles. "This photo is nice. I am happy in this picture."

Then Mila takes another thing from the box. "This is a small yellow ball." Leo loves this ball. "That ball is Leo's favourite toy," Mila says. Leo sees the ball and runs to Mila. He is very excited. "Leo! These toys are yours!" Mila laughs.

In the box there are also some drawings. "These drawings are my drawings," Mila says. One drawing is a house. That house is Mila's home. Another drawing is a school. "That is my school. My friends are there." Mila looks at the drawings. She feels happy.

Then Mila finds a small notebook. "This notebook is interesting," she says. Inside the notebook there are many sentences. Mila reads them. "My name is Mila. I am nine years old. I am a student. I am from Estonia." Mila laughs. "Oh! This is my old notebook!" In the notebook there are also feelings. "I am happy today." "I am tired." "I am excited." "I am sad." Mila says: "These feelings are my feelings. Sometimes I am happy. Sometimes I am sad. Sometimes I am excited."

Then Mila finds one more photo. "That photo is new," she says. In the photo there are many children. "These children are my classmates." Mila points at the photo. "This girl is Anna. She is my best friend." "That boy is Mark. He is funny." "These children are my class."

Mila closes the box. She smiles. "These things are small," she says. "But they are about me." "This is my life." And Leo jumps happily next to her.
